

Generation Equality Forum, Paris 2021 Community Agreement and Guidelines

The Generation Equality Forum is a global virtual gathering for gender equality, convened by UN Women and co-chaired by France and Mexico, in partnership with civil society.

The open exchange of ideas and the freedom of thought and expression are central to the Forum's goals. These require an environment that fosters dignity, understanding, and mutual respect; and embraces diversity.

The Forum will provide support and space for meaningful participation to enable a broad spectrum of viewpoints and constructive dialogue. All participants attending the virtual platforms of the Generation Equality Forum agree to adhere to the following Community Agreement and Guidelines.

The Values of the Generation Equality Forum

Diversity and Inclusion: Forum participants are diverse in backgrounds, identities, experiences, and views. Participants come together in this Forum to celebrate and recognize that strength comes from this diversity united in the goal of achieving gender equality.

Human Rights: One of the central purposes of the Generation Equality Forum is the full respect, protection, and promotion of women's human rights. Participants in the Forum recognize that human rights are indivisible, interdependent, inalienable, and universal.

Transformation: The Generation Equality Forum recognizes that it is essential to transform gender norms that perpetuate inequalities in order to achieve its goals and chart a course toward a more just and equal world.

Cooperation: The success of the Generation Equality Forum will rely on the cooperation, solidarity and collective action across stakeholders, movements and borders.

Principles of Participation in the Generation Equality Forum

The Generation Equality Forum is intended to be a platform for exchanges on issues of gender equality embodying the values noted above.

By signing on to this platform, you agree to these terms and understand that any breach of this agreement and its guidelines can lead to your participation being restricted or removed and your content being deleted from the site.

Explicit Agreement with the Forum's Community Guidelines

I have read the Community Guidelines and I understand that the Generation Equality Forum is a space that:

- allows for respectful interaction, dialogue and exchange.
- recognizes, values and celebrates diversity.
- uses respectful language that recognizes the diversity among Forum participants.

It is strictly forbidden to:

- make racist, ageist, ableist, misogynistic, homophobic, or transphobic statements, including hate speech, offensive or inciting violence comments within our event platform;
- leave derogatory and repetitive messages on the live chat tool on our event platform;
- use the Generation Equality platform for commercial purposes.

The Generation Equality Forum reserves the right to exclude registered members from the event platform in case of any behavior deemed inappropriate, offensive, or not respecting our code of conduct.

The Secretariat of the Generation Equality Forum declines all responsibility for the use made of screenshots during the broadcasting of our live sessions.

The Secretariat of the Generation Equality Forum cannot be held responsible for statements not coming from its official communication

By registering as a participant in the Generation Equality Forum Paris, you agree to observe the Forum's above guidelines, and understand that any breach could lead to your content being deleted and your withdrawal from the Forum platform.